

Mission: To train individuals who have professional ethics, who can put theory into practice, who are committed to labor law, who are contemporary in science, who are open to technological developments, who are committed to Atatürk's Principles and Reforms, who believe in and trust themselves, who can express themselves, who can set an example to their environment, who have adopted the principle of continuous research in their field, who have adopted the culture of production and who are committed to social values.

Vision To be an innovative, entrepreneurial, sharing educational institution that trains intermediate technical staff who are self-confident, capable of taking responsibility, productive, problem solving, have high quality and standards in the knowledge, skills and technological developments required by contemporary vocational technical education, and are sought after in national and international platforms.